FUEL UP TO GET THE MOST OF EVERY PLANT

FULLTEC ULTRAZINC fuels up your plants with essential nutrients to maximize performance and get you further this season.

Spraytec.com

Description

Fulltec UltraZinc is a complete nutritional blend which supplies the nutrients that can limit production when they are needed in greater quantity than the soil can provide. The product works considering Justus Von Liebig's Law of Minimum which states that yield is proportional to the amount of the most limiting nutrient, whichever nutrient it may be.

Main Benefits:

Convenient:

When time for tissue test is limited, UltraZinc supplies most of the lacking nutrients and the plant metabolizes the rest.

Easy to Use:

All the nutrition that would require a mix of many different products, packaged in just one handy jug.

Compatibility:

Nutrients in a form that guarantees no mixing problems with insecticides, fungicides, or herbicides.
