Description

FULLTEC FINISH MAX

Fulltec Finish Max combines balanced nutrition and metabolic activation to support plant health and improve efficiency. This product will help maximize grain and fruit filling, resulting in higher yields and better crop quality.

Main Benefits:

Grain Filling

Maximizes grain and fruit filling, promotes better grain weight, improves uniformity and higher yield potential.

Plant Health

Stimulates key enzymatic and physiological processes that enhance plant performance during the reproductive stage.

Stress Tolerance

Strengthens natural plant defenses and helps crops recover faster from biotic and abiotic stress.
